

Gijs Hoevenaars
Netherlands Commission on Environmental Assessment

Quality control by an independent Commission - The Dutch experiences

Abstract

In this presentation, I will reflect on the Dutch experiences with quality control of EIA. This is done by an independent Commission, established by law. I will also look into the modifications of the EIA directive with regard to quality control and appropriate separation of functions: in what way did the EIA directive strengthen the quality control of EIA?